

July 16, 2015

Dr. Kevin Swift
Chief Economist
American Chemistry Council
700 Second St., NE
Washington, DC 20002

Dear Dr. Swift:

On behalf of the board of directors of the National Association for Business Economics (NABE), I am pleased to inform you that you have been unanimously elected an NABE Fellow. Congratulations! You join a prestigious group which includes former NABE Presidents, long-time contributors, and some of the most prominent visionaries in economics such as Milton Friedman, Alice Rivlin and Paul Volcker.*

NABE Fellows are proposed by NABE's Nominating Committee and elected by a vote of the full NABE Board of Directors. Among the criteria for becoming an NABE Fellow are outstanding service as a professional economist and contributions to NABE. The award recognizes your significant personal contributions to NABE as a Director, your chairmanship of many successful NABE conferences and survey committees, your service as a member of the Business Economics editorial board, and your critical involvement in the development of the Certified Business Economist program. In addition, your election reflects your important professional contributions to the field of business economics during your outstanding career.

As a NABE Fellow, you enjoy complimentary lifetime NABE Membership. We hope you will join us October 13th at the NABE Annual Meeting luncheon in Washington, D.C. so that we can celebrate your election as Fellow with other NABE members and present you with a small token of our esteem in person.

Congratulations again on your election as NABE Fellow, and thank you for your contributions to NABE and to the business economics profession.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Jack Kleinhenz". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Jack Kleinhenz
2015 Nominating Committee Chair
2013-2014 NABE President

* A complete list of all the NABE Fellows can be found on the NABE website at:
<http://nabe.com/publib/Fellows>.