

The University of Mary Washington
Department of Classics, Philosophy, and Religion presents

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN A FRACTURED AMERICA

March 22-23, 2018

University Center, Colonnade Room
University of Mary Washington

Thursday, March 22 – a special panel

Religious Freedom on the Streets:
Remembering Charlottesville

7-8:30 p.m.

Monroe Hall, Room 116

Open to the public.

Find a detailed schedule of the events at:
cas.umw.edu/clpr/cprblogs

Follow us:

 UMWCPR |  @UMWCPR

Religious Freedom in a Fractured America is also sponsored by:

The University of Virginia Center for the Study of Religion, The UMW Women's and Gender Studies Program, The UMW Department of Political Science and International Affairs, The UMW Leidecker Center for Asian Studies, The UMW Department of History and American Studies

where great minds get to work