

THE KHATIB PROGRAM IN RELIGION & DIALOGUE

WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF MARY WASHINGTON'S DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS, PHILOSOPHY, & RELIGIOUS STUDIES

PRESENTS A CONFERENCE ON

RACE & RELIGION

WITH KEYNOTE SPEAKER

SHANNON LANIER

THOMAS JEFFERSON'S 6TH GREAT-GRANDSON

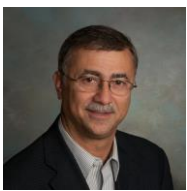

JEFFERSON'S CHILDREN: THE STORY OF ONE AMERICAN FAMILY

Tuesday, March 29, 2022, 7:00 - 9:00pm | Dodd Auditorium

WITH PANEL PRESENTATIONS

Wednesday, March 30, 2022, 9:00am - 5:00pm | University Center, Rooms 104 A & B

Dr. Mehdi Aminrazavi

Professor, University of Mary Washington

Director, Khatib Program in Religion & Dialogue (KPRD)

Opening & Concluding Remarks

MORNING SESSION - RACE & RELIGION IN TIME

9:30-10:30am Dr. Brock Bahler

Director of Undergraduate Studies & Senior Lecturer, University of Pittsburgh

"Religious Freedom, Christian Nationalism, & White Supremacy: Intersections, Disparities, and Implications, Then and Now."

10:30-11:30am Mackenzie R. Poust

Graduate Student in Arab Studies, Georgetown University

Interreligious Dialogue Research Coordinator, KPRD

"Arab Americans, Media Representations, and Looking Forward in a 21st Century United States."

11:30am -12:30pm - Panel Discussion | 12:30 - 2:00pm - Lunch Break

AFTERNOON SESSION - RACE & RELIGION IN POLITICS

2:00-3:00pm Dr. Terrence L. Johnson

Associate Professor of Religion & Politics, Georgetown University

Senior Research Fellow, Berkeley Center for Religion, Peace, & World Affairs

"Black Faith and the Ethical Turn in Radical Politics."

3:00-4:00pm Dr. Kai Parker

Assistant Professor of African American Religious History, University of Virginia

"Ruins in the Whirlwind: Race, Religion, & the Crisis of Democracy."

4:00 - 5:00pm - Panel Discussion | 5:00pm - Concluding Remarks

Questions? Phone: x1023 | Email: cprd@mail.umw.edu

Free and Open to the Public