

FALL 2023 COE SPEAKER SERIES

University of
Mary Washington
College of Education

Pathways to Different Careers in K-12 Education

September 20

DR. ANN BUECHE (AND TEAM)

Chief Student Support Officer, Stafford County Public Schools

Hear how Dr. Bueche and members of her team believe they can influence positive change in education by providing exceptional support to faculty & staff...all with students in mind.

October 4

"My Oddball Journey of Computer Science Careers"

EILEEN MALICK

Computer Science Instructor; Code RVA Regional High School

Learn how Eileen Malick has used software applications, mobile phone apps, robotics, and more to teach students and create connections for STEM careers!

A Leader's Recipe for Educational Success

October 18

DR. SARAH CALVERIC

Superintendent; Caroline County Public Schools

She has been called the "Michael Jordan of educational leadership, AND was named the regional Superintendent of the Year by the VA Association of School Superintendents.

November 1

"Teaching is Magic: Community, Identity, & Crafting a Career You Can Love"

VICTORIA PARENT

English Teacher; Chesterfield County Public Schools

Find out how this UMW alum ('17 & '18) is always on the go – from travel, to research, to working as an educator in residence with the NY Public Library, earning her National Board Certification & being teacher of the year finalist!

All speaker presentations will be in the Weatherly Wing •
Seacobeck Hall (Room 145) • Wednesdays, 5:00 - 5:45 p.m.